VESSEL & EQUIPMENT CHECKLIST/

Take Time to Reflect on Safety. Safe Boating Begins with You.

Trip Destination	Personal papers; operator's certificate or license (if required) onboard, current.	Mooring lines and fenders in good condition
	Ship's papers; registration or documentation certificate.	Paddles or oars. Tool kit and spare parts (including light bulbs
Date	Life jacket suitable for each person on board, readily accessible, in good condition.	fuses). Bilge free of fuel vapors and excess water.
	Throwable floatation aid immediately available.	Fuel supply full.
	Fire extinguishers conveniently placed, fully charged,	Fuel system free of leaks.
	in good condition.	Engine oil and transmission fluid levels
	Visual distress signals with current expiration dates.	correct.
	Horn working.	Battery fully charged, fluid level full.
	Bell (if required) onboard.	Electronic gear in good condition.
		Engine drive belts tight, in good condition.
	Anchor and anchor line appropriate to area, depth, conditions.	All navigation lights working.
Additional Resources: United States Coast Guard Boating Safety http://www.uscgboating.org United States Coast Guard Auxiliary	Compass properly adjusted.	Steering and shift mechanisms in good condition.
	Charts for the area, up to date.	Outboard motor mountings tight (if Navigation tools.	appropriate).
http://www.cgaux.org	Boat hook.	Grab rails, life-lines in good condition.

Information Source:

http://bdept.cgaux.org/wp/?page_id=1032

VESSEL & EQUIPMENT CHECKLIST

The Coast Guard Foundation supports the men and women of the United States Coast Guard who protect America's shores and save lives at sea. Learn more about our mission and find out how you can help at www.coastguardfoundation.org